To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Archbishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacon and Clergy of the Diocese of Canterbury.

May it please your most Sacred Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, do beg Leave most humbly and heartily to congratulate your Majesty's safe Arrival in this Kingdom, which hath at length given you to the impatient Desires of all your People, and brought to your faithful Clergy, in particular, unspeakable Comfort and Satisfaction.

The Grief which so sensibly wounded our Hearts, for the Death of our late most pious, most gracious, and upon all Accounts most deservedly dear Sovereign, must have been insupportable, but for the Prospect of a Successor, in whom we hope to see her Virtues still surviving, and our Happiness perpetuated. One whom we rejoice to find already inheriting not her Dominions only, but her People's Hearts; whose undisturbed Accession to a distant Throne hath scattered our very Fears of Danger, and is a happy Pledge of united Affections, long Tranquility, and chearful Obedience, under an Administration begun with so unanimous and universal Joy.

In your tried Valour, and Prudence, and Zeal for the Protestant Interest, this Church and State, great Sir, intirely confide, for the continuance of their religious and civil Rights; for Justice, Protection, and Safety at home, and for the Advancement of their Honour and Prosperity abroad.

In your numerous and Royal Progeny (which we most earnestly beseech God to prosper and increase) you have brought us an additional Security, with which these Kingdoms have been long unacquainted; even Childrens Children, who after your Majesty shall have very many Years lived, and reigned (as we pray God you may) a Blessing to the present Age,

Age, may be the glorious Inſtruments of Providence for eſtabliſhing among us Peace and Happineſs, Truth and Juſtice, Religion and Piety, throughout all Generations.

For theſe good Purpoſes we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that our conſtant Endeavours ſhall be moſt zealouſly employed. We do ſincerely acknowledge it to be both our Duty and our Intereſt; and, in Conformity to the known Loyal Principles of our Eſtabliſhed Church, we ſhall diligently teach our People, that it is alſo theirs, by all poſſible Inſtances of Fidelity and Obedience, to conſult the Honour and Security of our moſt holy Religion, to preſerve Peace and Order, and Amity among all your Subjects, to contribute their utmoſt to the Eaſe and Happineſs of your Majeſty's Government, and inviolably to maintain all thoſe Prerogatives and Dignities, which, together with the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms, are now by Law, and moſt undoubted Right, devolved upon your Royal Perſon and Poſterity.

Stock-

Stockholm, Sept 11. N. S. Vice-Admiral Lillie, who commands a Squadron of nine Frigats, which has its Station between the Coaſt of Sweden and the Iſle of Aland, has ſent a Lieutenant hither with a Letter dated the 1ſt Inſtant, relating, That the 30th paſt in the Night it blew ſo violent a Storm at North, that every Ship was driven from her Anchors; and that one of them having run a-ground, and another on a Rock, were not got off at the time the Letter was written. As we have not had any Account in 14 Days from Admiral Watrang's Squadron, which Cruiſes between Gothland and Revel, we are apprehenſive it may have ſuffered likewiſe by that Storm. The Weather having of late been very cold and wet, the Troops encamped in the Neighbourhood of this City begin to have Diſtempers among them, and particularly the Cavalry ſuffer much; wherefore the Regency have ordered General Meyerfeldt to viſit every Regiment, and to ſee whether any better Means than have been yet uſed can be contrived to ſecure them from the unſeaſonableneſs of the Weather. That General arrived here ſome Days ago from Careſcroon to ſollicit ſome Remittances of Mony for the Service of the Fleet. The beginning of this Month the Ruſſian General Trebetskay had another Conference with Count Horn, and two other Senators. 'Tis ſaid he continues to give great Aſſurances of the Czar his Maſter's ſincere Deſire to make Peace, and upon very reaſonable Terms; but as we hear nothing of any Project of Specifick Demands on either ſide, we doubt the Work will not be much advanced by theſe Conferences, while the King's Pleaſure is not known, Stockholm, Sept. 18. N. S. A Commiſſion, conſiſting of a Preſident and four Commiſſaries, is to be appointed to examine into the Conduct of Baron Reenſtierna, Preſident of the College of Commerce, who is accuſed of having given Permiſſions in the Name of the Regency to ſeveral Ships to ſail to Riga, Revel, and Petersburgh. King Staniſlaus's Conſort having determined to go to Deux-ponts, ſhe is expected here next Week, in order to take her leave of the Royal Family. The laſt Letters which came hither from Demotica, gave ſuch poſitive Aſſurances of the King's ſudden Departure from the Turkiſh Dominions, that we reckon his Majeſty to be certainly now on his way homewards, tho' the Senate has not had notice of his Intentions. General Meyerfeldt ſummoned the wealthieſt Burghers here lately, in order to procure a Sum of Mony to be advanced for the Service of the Fleet, but could not obtain any: That General is gone to viſit the Camp, and will from thence proceed to the Fleet, being ſent to bring the Regency an exact Account of the Condition of both. Mr. Jackſon, his Britannick Majeſty's Reſident here, has had Audiences of the Queen Grand-Mother, and of the Princeſs Royal, to notifie the Death of the late Queen of Great Britain, and the Acceſſion of his preſent Majeſty King George to the Throne of that Kingdom; he likewiſe notified the ſame to the Senate; this Court went into Mourning yeſterday upon that Occaſion.

Copenhagen, Oct. 6. N. S. The Squadron of Ships which has been fitting out here for ſome Months, and which has not been hitherto able to put to Sea for want of the neceſſary Sums to pay the Sailers, is now ordered to be laid up again. This Court is taking all the Precautions they can to hinder the Troops of Heſſe-Caſſel with the Swediſh Regiments from Deux-ponts from marching into Pomerania; they have ordered the Daniſh Miniſters at Vienna to endeavour to ingage the Emperor in this Affair. The Poliſh Miniſter has aſſured this King, that his Maſter will have 10 Battallions and 4 Regiments of Horſe of his Saxon Troops ready to oppoſe the Heſſians in their March; and the like Aſſurances are ſaid to be given by the Biſhop of Munſter, in purſuance of a Treaty he has with Denmark: The Duke of Wirtemberg and the Generals Scholten and Dewitz have orders to concert the propereſt Meaſures on this Occaſion, and a new Diſpoſition is to be made in the Quarters in Holſtein, in ſuch manner as that the Daniſh Forces may more eaſily be aſſembled in caſe of any ſudden Event.

Hamburgh, October 12. N. S. The Daniſh Artillery, deſigned for the Service of the Troops in Holſtein, is arrived in twenty ſix Tranſports at Friderichs-Ort. His Daniſh Majeſty is expected very ſuddenly in Holſtein. The Deputies of this City have Orders to attend him at Gottorp. The Daniſh Generals are making ſuch Diſpoſitions, as well in Holſtein as in the Durchy of Bremen, that their Troops may be always in readineſs to March, either towards the Traue, or the Elbe, in caſe the King of Sweden ſhould after his Arrival move out of Pomerania with his Army.

Vienna Sept. 29. N. S. Baron Gortz, Miniſter of Holſtein, is gone from hence to wait upon the King of Sweden. Two Swediſh Officers, who lately paſſed by this Place ſay, that his Majeſty had received a good part of the Mony promiſed him by the Port, and would certainly ſet out about the beginning of October, and hoped to get to Stralſund in a Month's time. Prince Eugene arrived here the 20th from Baden; but the Peace lately concluded there is not yet made Publick. Count Schonborn, Vice-Chancellor of the Empire, being now arrived, ſeveral Inveſtitures will be diſpatched, which had been delayed by reaſon of his Abſence. There is a deſign to erect a Bank here, and the Imperial Revenues are to be engaged as the Fund; it is propoſed to raiſe the Credit of the Finances by this Project; but the method of ſettling it is not yet known. The Emperor and Empreſs returned to the Favorita the 27th from the Baths. Preparations are making for their Journey to Presburg, whither their Imperial Majeſties deſign to be going about the 20th of next Month.

Madrid Oct. 1. N. S. Since the taking of Barcelona, an Expreſs arrived here, with an Account that Cardona has ſubmitted to the Diſcretion of the King, in Compliance with a Letter ſent to them by the Deputies of the Province of Catalonia: The Count de Montemar, upon his taking Poſſeſſion of the Place, found in it large Stores of Proviſions and Ammunition. A Leader of the Miquelets called Armengol, has yielded voluntarily to the Governor of Manreſa, with 300 of his Followers, and 'tis hoped the reſt will follow his Example. However, the Marquis de Lede's Brother, as he was going from Tarragona to the Camp with 15 Troopers, had the Misfortune to be fallen upon by a numerous Party of Miquelets, who killed him and 13 of his Guard. Orders having been given for taking away the Arms of all the Catalonians, our Miniſtry has thought fit to countermand the buying up of Arms in France and Biſcay for the Regular Troops. Altho' it was expected that the Taxes would have been in a great meaſure abated upon the concluſion of the War in Spain, yet we ſee the the contrary. A Decree iſſued for every Family throughout the Kingdom, to pay 24 Royals of Vellon, by way of Donative.

Paris, October 17. N. S. The Advices from Madrid of the 1ſt Inſtant tell us, that all the Catalonians who had riſen in the open Country, were actually delivering up their Arms, and returning to their reſpective Habitations. Letters from Barcelona of the 28th of laſt Month relate, that the Marſhal Berwick had put a Garriſon of ſixteen Battalions into that Place, and cauſed them to be lodged in Numbers together in the Monaſtries, judging they would not be ſafe if they were diſperſed in Quarters among the Inhabitants: And for further Security, he has cauſed the Cannon of the Batteries on the Ramparts to be pointed towards the Town, to keep the People in awe. Beſides, the Marſhal has cauſed Sig. del Poal and his Brother, Joſepet, Baſſet, Dalmau, and eleven more of the late Leaders of the Barcelonians, to be ſeized; and after they had been examined and ſearched before the Marquis de Guerchy, upon ſome Informations which 'twas ſaid the Marſhal had againſt them, they were ſent under a Guard of Grenadiers to Alicant, where they are to be put in Priſon ſeparate from each other. The Marſhal has likewiſe obliged the Marquis de Villaroel, who lies ill of his Wounds, to give his Parole of Honour that he will not attempt to Eſcape. Four Regiments more of French are ordered to March to Catalonia, and 'tis ſaid a greater Number is to follow them.

Bruſſels, October 19. N. S. The Conferences at Antwerp have been diſcontinued ſince the 12th Inſtant. During this Receſs the Imperial Miniſter Count Konigſeck is come hither, and almoſt all the Dutch Deputies are gone to Middlebourg in Zealand. The Count goes back to Antwerp to Night, expecting thoſe Deputies will return thither to Morrow; but 'tis doubted whether the Conferences will be renewed to any Effect, till the return of an Expreſs which has been diſpatched to Vienna.

Hague, October 16. N. S. The Duke d'Oſſuna, Plenipotentiary of Spain, deſigns to return in a few Days to Utrecht, in order to conclude with the Portugueſe Miniſters the Treaty of Peace ſtill depending between the Crowns of Spain and Portugal, to both which Courts Couriers have heen diſpatched, for their final Determination upon the Difficulties which do yet obſtruct that Treaty. The States General have given Order for Fireworks and other publick Demonſtrations of Joy, for the Exchange of the Ratifications of their Treaty of Peace and Commerce with Spain, which will be proclaimed here the 22d Inſtant. The States of this Province had laſt Week under Conſideration, a Propoſal made by the Directors of the Weſt-India Company, for uniting our Weſt and Eaſt-India Companies.

Hague, Oct. 19. N. S. The 14th the Earl of Berkeley and Sir John Walters arrived here, having left at Helvoetſluys the Squadron of Men of War commanded by his Lordſhip. The Yachts are come up to Rotterdam. On the 17th the Princeſs of Wales arrived at Leidſendam, about a League and a half from hence, where her Royal Highneſs landed that Afternoon about 5 a Clock, and was received by the Earls of Strafford and Albemarle, and their Counteſſes, as alſo by the Deputies appointed by the States of Holland to welcome and attend her Highneſs during her ſtay in this Province. About 6 her Highneſs arrived here at the Old Court, with the two eldeſt of the Princeſſes her Daughters, the youngeſt being left at Hanover on account of a late Indiſpoſition. The Company having taken leave of her Highneſs, ſhe retired and Supped in private. The next Morning her Highneſs received the Compliments of the States-General, who had nominated Deputies from their Aſſembly for that purpoſe. Her Highneſs Dined in private, and in the Afternoon the Weather being fair, ſhe appeared in the Voorhout, attended by a very numerous Train of Coaches. In the Evening her Highneſs kept a Drawing-Room, at which were all the Ladies and Perſons of Diſtinction of this Place. To Day her Highneſs received Viſits from the French Ambaſſador and other Foreign Miniſters, to Congratulate her upon her ſafe Arrival.
